

illustration, the proportional rate on wheat to Monroe from Kansas City and St. Louis is now 31c. After August 1 rates will be 21c from Kansas City and 14c from St. Louis.

It is expected that the new rates will be such as to meet with public favor and to afford possibilities for lower prices for certain commodities.

LOCAL DELEGATION PLANS TO ATTEND FARM CONVENTION

J. M. DeMoss, Ward 7 farmer, and delegation from this parish, are to go to Opelousas for the convention held there tomorrow of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union. Others who will go are: W. S. Sims, Calhoun; S. L. Sutton, of Eros; Billy Crowell, of Eros; R. Ouchley, Monroe, and Prof. H. P. McBride, Monroe.

Mr. DeMoss states that the purpose of the meeting is to form a program of actual organization of farmers which he regards as essential. He is on the executive committee of the farmers' union.

Music School Members To Sing at Dunn Sunday

RAYVILLE, July 30.—(Special)—Monday night, August 2, a program will be rendered at Dunn, La., by A. Doss and members of his school of music.

Much interest has been manifested in the school work and special training has been given in effort to make the final night program a success. This program will consist namely of sacred music as offered by the various quartets in the school as well as class singing.

On Sunday afternoon at 2:30 a parading convention will be organized at Dunn and plans made for the annual meeting of the convention.

1903, and married the late Byron Cann in December, 1904. She was a member of the First Methodist church and highly regarded. A special tribute to her memory was paid last night by Supt. T. O. Brown of the parish schools, who termed her a devoted wife, mother and friend, and one whose Christian influence has been widely exerted.

Mrs. Cann leaves besides her parents, one son, John Cann, two sisters, Mrs. C. E. Speed, Tallulah; Mrs. Frank Chase, Monroe; three brothers, Bishop Johnston, Monroe; David Johnston, Chicago; Edward Johnston, Monroe.

MRS. C. C. ODLE

Mrs. C. C. Odle of Crossett, Ark., died early yesterday afternoon at a local sanitarium following an operation. The body was taken late yesterday to the family home and then will be removed to Poplar Bluff, Mo., for burial.

Deceased is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lane of Poplar Bluff, and by three brothers and three sisters, also by three daughters, who are Misses Vivian, Velma and Alice Ruth.

Mrs. Odle was a member of the Baptist church in her home town. Her husband was killed last December in a sawmill accident.

MARTHA JANE BRUNO

Martha Jane Bruno, eight-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Bruno, of 503 Alexander avenue, died at the residence at midnight. The funeral is planned from the residence at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon to St. Matthew's church. Interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

WILSON FUNERAL

The funeral of Henry F. Wilson, 80, who died at his home on Pine street in West Monroe last night, was held from the residence this afternoon at 1 o'clock. Interment was made in Mount Nebo cemetery.

-By Paul Fung

... VA ... SWAIS ... WHO
tend the game Friday afternoon
4:30 o'clock at McGuire park, W
Monroe, between members of
T. E. L. Sunday school class and Woman's Missionary society of
First Baptist church, West Monr

The opposing teams are reported
be well matched, and are expected
give a good account of themselves.
It is expected that the game will featured by heavy hitting, and who wish to enjoy a good ball ga
are invited to attend.

The proceeds from the game will divided equally between the two ganizations and used in their acti ties.

LOCAL PARTY TO TAKE PLANE TRIP LEAVING FRIDA

John S. Fox, local business man and aviator, will leave Friday morn
early, flying his three-passenger Qu
tis-Robin to Bella Vista, summer r
sort in Arkansas.

Accompanying Mr. Fox on the tr
will be Alden Shotwell, local atto
ney, and Dr. C. P. Jarrell of Mon roe, whose wives are spending th
summer at the resort.

Dr. and Mrs. Jarrell will retur with Mr. Fox, who pilots his ow plane, next Sunday, while Mr. Sho
well will remain at Bella Vista fo
several days before returning to Mon roe.

CORN ONE CENT A DOZEN

KANSAS CITY.—(P)—Sweet corn
one cent a dozen! Huge quantities ripened suddenly by the hot weather
have been thrown on the market.
One grocer bought a whole field s cheaply, he made a profit at 12 ear
for a cent.

"UNDER NEW

BEAU

EDGEW

Starting SATURDA

We welcome everyone to enjoy the evening
on the South's f

